

NSTBC Meeting Minutes

12/10/2012

Call to Order was at 7:13 p.m.

Officers present were President Walter B. Hollman, Sr., Vice-President Arnold Goering, Treasurer Sue Williams, and Secretary Kia Jones-Scott.

Minutes:

The November minutes were read by Kia Jones-Scott. A motion was made and seconded to accept the minutes with minor corrections and the motion carried.

Treasurer's Report:

Sue Williams explained the bank reconciliation statement with an ending balance of $695.23.

Acknowledged Guests:

Margaret Stokes, a representative from the Councilman's office, was present. She informed NSTBC that the Councilman has a newsletter that we may want to post on our website. Margaret also stated that the Councilman wants to work with the communities and get them more involved.

Community Report:

- Several new businesses (mainly supermarkets) have opened or will open in the Baltimore County area;
- Edmondson Heights has a new President, Quentin Stephens; and
- Don't forget to attend the Christmas Party at the Woodlawn Police Precinct this Wednesday beginning at 5:30 p.m. Please bring a dish and dress business casual.

Police Reports:

Officer Glass discussed the criminal activities occurring in the areas that NSTBC represents. It included coins being stolen from washer/dryer rooms, shed and house burglaries, people parking on the wrong side of the street, police presence near corner stores where loitering occurs frequently and other encounters.

Old and New Business:

- Should we consider a grant for NSTBC – Walter will send the contact information to Kia to see if a grant can be submitted by Friday, December 14.
- Fundraisers
 - Should NSTBC sponsor a parade? This could be done in 2014 but NSTBC must consider the other parades and ensure that the event doesn't affect them.

NSTBC Meeting Minutes

Also, it would be beneficial to have the neighborhood high-school bands march in the parade; and

- What about considering a movie night or picnic in the park.
- Website Review – No new issues with the website.
- Committees
 - Arnold Goering will be working on assisting communities in forming neighborhood associations and Citizens on Patrol;
 - Sue Williams will be working on fundraising activities; and
 - Kia Jones-Scott will be working on community organization and activities.
- NSTBC has filed for the 501C4. The 501C4 was the best fit for our new organization.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:30 p.m.
